

9 E. Elaine Barrett '77, executive assistant to the senior vice president of basketball at the NCAA, was named the 2019 President's Award recipient during the annual Staff Appreciation Day. The award is presented to a staff member who best exemplifies national office core values. Barrett was presented with a trophy by President Mark Emmert.

10 Harley Robinson '74, was awarded the 2019 Lifetime Achievement Award by the Indiana Veterinary Medical Association.

Jon Burroughs '72 '76 is retired from Indianapolis Public Schools. His latest novel, Karma and Crime, will be published through Bastet Publishing. Last December, his story, "The Reindeer Murder Case," appeared in the anthology Homicide for the Holidays.

11 David W. Bowman '72 retired in 2017 from 25 years of creating and hosting national cable automotive television shows. With a business partner in 1991, he founded Brenton Productions and created the popular "Shadetree Mechanic" series seen on the former Nashville Network. He later created and hosted the "Crank & Chrome" and "Two Guys Garage" automotive shows. After semi-retiring, he joined with Masters Entertainment to both start and host "Motorhead Garage," now seen on Motor Trend Television Network. Earlier, he retired after 20 years with Honeywell International, where he worked in the automotive aftermarket division in advertising and was the manager of motorsports with the Fram, Autolite, and Bendix product lines. Mr. Bowman and his wife, Karen, live in Lutz, Florida.

J. Donald Cossairt '70 and co-author Matthew Quinn, PhD, recently published a new textbook entitled "Accelerator Radiation Physics for Personnel and Environmental Protection." Despite profound developments in particle accelerators over the past four decades, this book is the first new textbook on this topic published since 1973. Dr. Cossairt is a Distinguished Scientist at the Fermi National Accelerator Laboratory in Batavia, Illinois.

David Geible '70 has retired from full-time work as a mapping specialist for the Fremont County Assessor's Office, Lander, Wyoming, but continues to work as a consultant performing archival and regulatory research, specializing in mineral rights ownership, grazing rights, and water rights.

12 Samuel Pieh '72 received the Honorary Lifetime Achievement Award during the third annual National Entertainment Awards in Sierra Leone. He is a descendant of Sengbe Pieh, who led a revolt in 1839 on the Spanish slave ship, La Amistad, and then won his freedom in a landmark case before the U.S. Supreme Court. Pieh served as a dialect coach and played a role in the 1997 Steven Spielberg film based on these events. He is currently being filmed for a new series titled "One Thousand Years of Slavery" for London, U.K.-based Channel 5.
